

Sweet Everlasting

Pseudognaphalium obtusifolium

A self-seeding annual or biennial plant with silvery-green stems and narrow leaves. Also known as rabbit tobacco. A host plant for the American Lady butterfly. It is usually found in openings, woodlands, coastal dunes, sandy pinelands, roadsides, and disturbed areas. Most abundantly found in sand.

Bloom Season:	Late Summer - Late Fall
Flower Colors:	White
Soil Tolerance:	Average, Sandy, Dry, Moist, Well drained
Height: 1-3 feet	Spread:
ANNUAL

