

Showy Goldenrod Solidago speciosa

As the common name suggests, this is one of the showiest of the many goldenrod species that occur throughout the United States. Pinch or cut off spent flowers to encourage additional bloom.

Bloom Season: Mid Summer - Late Summer

Flower Colors: Yellow

Average, Clay, Sandy, Dry, Moist, Well drained Soil Tolerance:

Height: 2-5 feet Spread: 2-3 feet

PERENNIAL

https://db.linpi.org/sosp