

Northern Bayberry

Myrica pensylvanica

This easy going shrub is semi-evergreen and its attractive leaves turn reddish during the fall. Its waxy yellow-green fruits are bird magnets and have been used traditionally to make candles.

Bloom Season: Mid Spring - Early Summer

Flower Colors: Green, Yellow

Soil Tolerance: Average, Clay, Sandy, Dry, Moist

Height: 2-6 feet

Spread: 3-6 feet

PERENNIAL

