

Hairy Pinweed

Lechea mucronata

An upright, weedy wildflower, found in sandy, dry, and disturbed areas. Its stems are quite hairy, and produces small red flowers. This easy-going species blooms from Summer to Fall.

Bloom Season: Early Summer - Early Fall

Flower Colors: Red

Soil Tolerance: Average, Sandy, Dry

Height: 1-3 feet      Spread: 1-2 feet

PERENNIAL

