

Deer Tongue

Dichanthelium clandestinum

Clump-forming perennial grass with fibrous roots. A decorative green fading to cream panicle (flower array) emerges from a sheath. Grows in forest edges, meadows and fields, shores of rivers or lakes.

- Bloom Season: Early Summer - Early Summer
- Flower Colors: Green
- Soil Tolerance: Average, Clay, Sandy, Dry, Moist, Poorly drained, Well drained
- Height: 1-3 feet Spread: 2-3 feet
- PERENNIAL

