

Deer Tongue Dichanthelium clandestinium

Clump-forming perennial grass with fibrous roots. A decorative green fading to cream panicle (flower array) emerges from a sheath. Grows in forest edges, meadows and fields, shores of rivers or lakes.

Early Summer - Early Summer Bloom Season:

Flower Colors: Green

Average, Clay, Sandy, Dry, Moist, Poorly drained Soil Tolerance:

Well drained

Height: 1-3 feet Spread: 2-3 feet

PERENNIAL

https://db.linpi.org/dicl